

| | | | | |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|---------------|--|-------------------------|
| DATE September 3rd | TIME 13h30 - 18h00 | ROOM D | TITLE Storage of Collections-Prepare for the Future | LANGUAGE English |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|---------------|--|-------------------------|

Joint Session: ICAMT, ICOM-CC, ICMS, CIDOC

In this STORAGE OF COLLECTIONS joint session organized with the ICAMT, ICOM-CC, ICMS and CIDOC International Committees, we will have presentations about addressing approaches to and practices in collection storages; space management and re-grouping of collections, solutions for museums with small budgets and lacking resources, storage security and also a panel discussion for the safeguarding collections for the future through proper storage, training, policies and management.

| N# | TIME | | COUNTRY | MODERATOR & SPEAKERS | INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE | POSITION AT IC | INSTITUTION | CONTACT | BIOGRAPHY | TITLE | ABSTRACT |
|----|-------------|---|-----------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|----------------|---------------------------------|--|--|--|---|
| | 13h30-14h00 | Opening of the Joint Session: ICAMT, ICOM-CC, ICMS, CIDOC | THE NETHERLANDS | Jean HILGERSOM (moderator) | ICAMT | Chair | ToornendPartners | hilgersom@toornend.com | Trained as an architect in the Netherlands and Switzerland. Since 1995 he is working as a Project Manager for ToornendPartners in Haarlem in the Netherlands, and since 2004 CEO. ToornendPartners is a consultancy firm with the focus on Project Management of buildings in the field of culture, like museums and theatres. Jean is involved in projects for the large museum institutions in the Netherlands, like the Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen, RijksMuseum, Museum Kröller Müller and the Centraal Museum. These are new building projects, restoration projects, maintenance projects and strategic planning of security and facility management | | |
| 1 | 14h00-14h30 | | FRANCE | Gaël de GUICHEN | ICOM-CC | Member | ICCROM | deguichengael@gmail.com | Gael de Guichen is a French chemical engineer, he concentrated on reorganizing storages worldwide in the context of the Re-org programme. He is advisor of ICCROM. | How International organisations have dealt with storages in the last century | The article will study how the Intergovernmental organisations have dealt with the problems which have an serious impact today on the 55.000 storages, recommendations, publications and surveys. |
| 2 | 14h30-15h00 | | UNITED KINGDOM | Vernon RAPLEY | ICMS | Board member | Victoria & Albert Museum London | v.rapley@vam.ac.uk | Director of Cultural Heritage Protection and Security, Special Advisor for the UK Cultural Heritage Protection Fund, chairman of the National Museum Security Group | V&A's plan for a Collections Resource Center: At risk or accessible? | The security and operational implications of making museum storage accessible. Point the design decisions and security innovations to keep the risks to the collection at an acceptable level. |
| 3 | 15h00-15h30 | | THE NETHERLANDS | Kiem-Lian THE | ICAMT | Member | ToornendPartners | the@toornend.com | Managing Partner and Senior Consultant/Project Manager. Lian works on a wide variety of projects for the arts such as museums and buildings for the performing arts. | New Storage facility for four museum institutions including the Rijksmuseum | The concept and design of the building and the unique collaborative effort of the four museum partners in this development, consultancy services as cost, contract and construction management. |

| | | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|-------------|---|-----------------|-------------------------|---------|--------------|--|--|--|---|---|
| 4 | 15h30-16h00 | | INDIA | Achal PANDYA | ICOM-CC | Board member | Indira Gandhi Gandhi National Centre for the Arts, New Delhi | achalpandya@hotmail.com | Associate Professor, Head of Division Conservation, teaches in the Post Graduate program: Preventive Conservation in addition to managing the conservation of collections. | Storage Reorganization Project in India | This presentation is about the way collection and storage strategies are implemented in India. What are the implications of collection management and reorganisation in a warm climate on collections. |
| | 16h00-16h15 | Break | | | | | | | | | |
| 5 | 16h15-16h45 | | BRAZIL | Gabriel Moore BEVILAQUA | CIDOC | Vice Chair | Moreira Salles Institute | gabirelmoore@gmail.com | Historian, archivist and museum professional working in the field of Brazilian cultural heritage documentation and conservation for the past eighteen years. | Documenation Strategies and tools | Documentation strategies, tools for collection's physical control and storage organization. Collection distribution, logistics tools, documentation systems for inventory and storage checking purposes. |
| 6 | 16h45-17h15 | | THE NETHERLANDS | Bart ANKERRSMIDT | ICOM-CC | Member | Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands | b.ankersmit@cultureelerfgoed.nl | Museum climate consultant. Active in the development and dissemination of risk management. He has applied the risk management approach to risks caused by indoor climate. | The influence of temperature and moisture | The focus will be on the way the indoor climate specifications for museums are developed, and Controlled by the 9-step process to develop the optimum indoor climate specifications |
| 7 | 17h15-17h45 | | DENMARK | Jesper Stub JOHNSEN | ICOM-CC | Member | National Museum of Denmark | | Deputy Director for Research, Collections and Conservation. He has a Ph.d.-degree in Conservation from University of Gothenburg from 1997 | New Storage facility in Denmark | The National Museum of Denmark together with The Royal Library of Denmark are in the process of constructing a shared storage facility. The vision is to combine low energy consumption with high quality and high density storage. |
| | 17h45-18h00 | Closing of the Joint Session: ICAMT, ICOM-CC, ICMS, CIDOC | | | | | | | | Final discussion | |